Student Number: ST10083852

AI (ChatGPT) Assistance Part 2

I used ChatGPT as an assistant to streamline the process of coding by using it to troubleshoot errors and offer code snippets to prompt me on how exactly to structure the project without breaking functionality (Adding separate screens for the main menu for example). It was especially useful for use in the logcat to find specific errors when running the project. It saved me a lot of time and is a useful tool for pinpointing issues and prompting.